The draft amendments to the NSE (Futures & Options) Trading Regulations of the Exchange as given hereunder are published for criticism in accordance with the provisions of Section 23 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 in the Gazette of India. Any person having any observations on the proposed amendments to the Regulations can send the same in writing to the undersigned at Exchange Plaza, C-1, Block-G, Bandra-Kurla Complex, Bandra (East), Mumbai-400051 within fifteen days from the date of this publication in the Gazette. The observations received after the aforementioned date will not be considered when the draft amendments will be taken for consideration.

The provisions contained in Regulation 6.1.6.2 in Chapter 6 of the NSE (Futures & Options) Trading Regulations of the Exchange are proposed to be amended by the insertion of the following clause as clause (v) to the said Regulation :-

QUOTE

6.1.6.2 (v) (a) The Trading Members shall keep the dematerialised securities of Constituents in a separate beneficiary account distinct from the beneficiary account maintained for holding their own dematerialised securities. No delivery towards the own transactions of the Trading Members shall be allowed to be made from the account meant for Constituents. For this purpose, every Trading Member is required to open a beneficiary account in the name of the Trading Member exclusively for the securities of the Constituents (hereinafter, to be referred to as "Constituents beneficiary account"). A Trading Member may keep one consolidated Constituents' beneficiary account for all its Constituents or different accounts for each of its Constituents as it may deem fit.

(b) Securities to be delivered into Constituents beneficiary account : No security shall be delivered into Constituents beneficiary account, other than-

   A. securities held or received on account of Constituents towards margin or as security deposit.

   B. securities for replacement of those which may by mistake or accident have been drawn from the account.

(c) Securities to be withdrawn from Constituents beneficiary account : No security shall be drawn from Constituents beneficiary account other than—

A. when they are properly required, for delivery to or on behalf of Constituents; for or towards meeting the Constituents' margin or pay-in obligations;

B. what are drawn under Constituents' authority or in respect of which there is a liability of Constituents to the Trading Member;

C. securities which by mistake or accident have been deposited into the account;

Provided further that the securities so drawn shall not in any case exceed the securities so held for the time being for the respective Constituents.
